About the Author

DAVID R. FASHENPOUR is a math teacher, an electronics technician, a software developer, and a serious student of the 80-year UFO coverup (perpetrated by the U.S. Government). Most of the years David has been alive - he has been lied to and misled as to the nature of UFO's and their mysterious pilots (that no one will talk about).

Dave's academic work resulted in a B.Sc. degree in Mathematics from Colorado State University and an M.Sc. degree in Computer Science from the University of Southern Mississippi. David worked 20 years in the United States Air Force (retiring as a Captain with a Top Secret/Crypto Security Clearance) and was involved in the Aerospace Industry for 20 years (retiring as a Senior Embedded Software Engineer, working with NASA, designing and building the International Space Station) while employed by the Boeing Company.

David then taught High School & Middle School Mathematics for a few years in Houston, Texas - before retiring to Florida and moving into a tropical, empty-nest bungalow with his wife of 59 years, Janna.

Preface

In Part #1 we will describe the experiences of a fallen angel, based upon the infamous Book of Enoch. Part #2 is about God's elimination of destructive, half-human mutants; based upon the Bible's Book of Genesis. Part #3 describe how hundreds of vengeful demons came to roam the world of today; as detailed in a Department of Defense briefing, which states, "We do not know who they are, why they are here, or where they came from; but we do know they are here and we do know they are real."

The entire story revolves around dimensionality, the concept of an entity existing in a different reality and passing through a dimensional portal to enter or leave our reality. An entity from a different dimension can be standing next to you, but you would not know it – unless the entity wanted you to know it. If you follow this story to its conclusion, you will begin to understand the big secret and the reason for the 80-year cover-up by the governments of this world. They were not concerned about us knowing technology – but they were very concerned about our physiological reaction to the existence of supernatural, dimensional beings.

Chapter 1:

The Watcher: Azazyel

Once a mighty servant of the Lord God and almost the equivalent to the Archangels Michael and Gabriel; Azazyel was one of the caretakers of Heaven. Azazyel had supernatural powers and was immortal; but Azazyel was not easily controllable and tended to associate with a rebellious group of angels – called the Watchers. Their unacceptable interest in the lives of certain humans, inhabiting the Earth, was suspicious to all angel observers, because the Watchers were constantly admiring the beautiful human females (the Daughters of Man) in a lustful manner. To a mere mortal, this sin was very serious, but to a legitimate heavenly angel, this sin would require the judgement of God. After a number of severe warnings, God's judgement was swift and final: the Watchers were to be expelled from Heaven and were to spend the rest of their time on Earth.

There were 200 Watchers total, with a Commander named Samyaza; a close personal friend of Azazyel. Samyaza protected his friend from the scorn other angels and from receiving the punishment owed-him, due to his continuous mischief. Samyaza commissioned Azazyel to be one of the 19 Squad Leaders, responsible for about 10 angels each. As you might anticipate, this new authority gave Azazyel the courage and the ability to do whatever un-Godly act that he could imagine – without retribution.

Azazyel wasted no time in getting to know the beautiful wives of mankind. In fact, he was one of the first of all the Watchers to impregnate a human female. It was not difficult for him to get their attention - he was a handsome, blond angel, with outstanding blue eyes, and magnificent wings.

You might say, Azazyel had evil on his mind. One thing that must be mentioned is that mankind was not informed in the ways of the world – yet. God had not planned to complicate their lives at this generation of development; things like the occult, astronomy, weapons of war, and using cosmetics to enhance your beauty. These subjects (and many more) were commonplace to the Watchers and they couldn't wait to teach innocent humans in 'the ways of the world'.

You might think that teaching new and exciting subjects to mankind was their biggest sin; but you would be wrong. It is true that God was very displeased with the contaminated thoughts being spread throughout the land; but what made God most unhappy was intercourse between his rejected angels and human women. It surely was not a natural act, because these supernatural beings had to ‘get creative’ in order to actually impregnate the wives of mankind. And they did.

Babies started to appear throughout the land – large babies, with red hair, six fingers, six toes, and two rows of teeth. These strange beings were the sad result of interbreeding humans to non-humans. The new mothers were scorned by the rest of the community – but lovingly raised their unique generation of giants. They grew fast and were extremely aggressive, with no morals, compassion, or common sense; no matter what remedies their mothers employed. They called them Nephilim, the sons of the Watchers.

The Nephilim were aggressive, greedy, and had no boundaries on their desires. As they grew bigger, it became more difficult to satisfy their needs – they outgrew their homes and food supply. They took what they wanted and when they could not find additional food, they began to cannibalize the villagers. They moved into the houses and evicted families to the street. The Nephilim had wrenched control of God's perfect creation and now, threatened the genetic seed – the DNA molecule that would yield the promised Messiah to God's people.

The son of Azazyel was one of the more violent Nephilim leaders and his name was Gazza. He was over 8 feet tall and was very strong, defeating anyone that would challenge him to a battle. Gazza was covered with bright red hair and had huge muscular arms and legs. He was referred to as one of the ‘men of renown’; men that were both feared and admired. Before long, Gazza had children of his own and some of which were normal humans -- due to recessive genes. Most of the children were mutant Nephilim, just like their infamous father. Each of the other Watchers created their own clan of mutants – until it became painfully obvious what God had to do.

Mathusala had arranged for a wife for his son Lamech. She became pregnant and brought forth a child with flesh as white as snow and as red as a rose. The child’s hair was long and white like wool and his eyes were beautiful. When the child opened his eyes, he illuminated the entire house – like the sun. But when they took the baby from the midwife, the child spoke in a clear voice and blessed the Lord of heaven.

Frightened, the child’s father, Lamech, ran from the house and ran to his father, Mathusala; screaming my child is like no other – he is not human! He has a different nature than we do, it is almost like he is an angel from heaven. He does not resemble anyone in our family and I believe something miraculous is about to happen. Please, Mathusala my father, seek-out our progenitor Enoch, for he talks to God and he will know what to do. Enoch was in the wilderness – far away from the family. Mathusala located Enoch and cried-out, telling Enoch about the child and beseeching Enoch to explain why such a child was born to them.

Enoch said, “The Lord will effect a new thing upon the earth. This have I explained, and seen in a vision.” He continued, “This child which is born to your son shall survive the earth and his three sons shall be saved with him. When all mankind who are on the earth shall die, he shall be safe. Now therefore inform your son Lamech, that he who is born is his child in truth; and he shall call his name Noah, for he shall be to you a survivor.” Enoch finished by explaining about the great deluge which will re-start God’s perfect plan and how Noah, with his family, will repopulate the earth after the flood.
